Traffic ban looms to give drinkers space

BY JULIE FISHER
julie.fisher@hpnorthants.co.uk

MOTORISTS trying to get through a Northampton street dubbed ‘an accident waiting to happen’ may soon have to find an alternative route.

Plans are in place to ban all traffic - except emergency vehicles - from using the popular nightspot Bridge Street between 8pm and 4am every Friday and Saturday.

Taxis would be able to access the rank in Mercers Row along Gold Street and the proposal includes an amendment for The Drapery which would allow traffic to access and leave the town centre by that route.

The Safer Stronger Northampton Partnership - made up of Northampton Borough Council, Northamptonshire County Council and Northamptonshire Police - has started a consultation on the proposal.

A statement from the partnership reads: Bridge Street is extremely busy with both pedestrians and vehicles on a Friday and Saturday night and the road often becomes overcrowded and blocked.

‘Parked cars and groups of people on foot cause bottlenecks and the busy atmosphere can sometimes spill over into disorder.

‘Cars coming into the town centre along Bridge Street also make it difficult for venues to manage the number of people queuing, adding to the risk of public disorder and are a clear hazard to pedestrians moving between venues in the street.

The aim of the Safer Stronger Northampton Partnership proposal is to increase public safety by removing the traffic and allowing pedestrians to move around freely.

‘There is also a potential added benefit in that the changes to road access for taxis should mean that they are not delayed in to and out of town, which will reduce waiting times at the taxi rank, where disorder often develops in the queue.’

Cllr Paul Varnsverry, speaking on behalf of the partnership, said: ‘Regrettably, the situation in Bridge Street has been an accident waiting to happen. While we would all encourage people to behave responsibly and look after themselves on a night out we also want to create an environment in Northampton town centre that increases public safety and reduces the risk of disorder. We are looking forward to hearing what people think of this proposal.’

Community Safety Sergeant, Mark Worthington, said: ‘Northamptonshire Police have been working with partners for some months to close Bridge Street on Friday and Saturday evenings in order to reduce crime and disorder associated with the night time economy.

‘Reducing traffic will give people more space to leave venues, which we hope will reduce the potential for conflict and serious accidents.’

Emma Roberts, general manager of Revolution, backed the plan.

She said: ‘I think it’s a really good idea because of the amount of near accidents you see with people coming out of bars and traffic going up the street.’

This weekend, staff from the Partnership will be in Bridge Street to find out what people who use the area at night, businesses, residents, taxi drivers and other groups think of the proposals.

The emergency services have all given their backing to the project.

If the Experimental Order goes ahead, the situation will be closely monitored to make sure that the problems are not displaced into other parts of the town centre. People would also be given a six-month period during which they can raise objections to the order.

To comment on the proposals, write to Community Safety at Northampton Borough Council, the Guildhall, Northampton, or email dppo@northampton.gov.uk

Plans unveiled to solve congestion

By Julie Fisher
julie.fisher@hpnorthants.co.uk

Traffic congestion in Kingsthorpe could be a thing of the past with plans to improve the road layout between Welford Road and the Cock Hotel junction.

The county council has organised a series of exhibitions to showcase the works which are scheduled to start next year on what’s being called the ‘Kingsthorpe Corridor’.

The project is part of a wider initiative by the county council to improve traffic flows along radial routes from the town centre.

The work will focus on three sections of the Kingsthorpe Corridor: at the Cock Hotel Junction; from Kingsthorpe Grove to Kingsland Avenue and the Welford Road/Harborough Road Junction.

Improvements will include carriageway widening to allow easier traffic flow, more effective traffic signals to minimise congestion and the re-positioning of pedestrian crossings.

Cllr Sally Beardsworth represents Kingsthorpe on the borough and county councils and has given her backing to the proposals.

She said: “Any improvement is better than none.”

“A lot of things are going to be put right that were wrong last time in my opinion and they will be increasing the traffic flow, they’ve assured me, by several seconds.

“If you can make it more streamlined for people to get through that bottleneck I support it wholeheartedly.

“On the whole they are doing the best they can with the material they’ve got.

“Have your say, come and have a look at the exhibition and officers will talk them through.

“There will be several opportunities for people to put their point of view across.”

Cllr Heath Smith, county council cabinet member for environment, growth and transport, said: “Northampton is a fast evolving town and is essential that we keep pace with this development by adapting the urban transport network to the growing needs of our people.

“The Kingsthorpe Corridor is a busy route into the town centre and I believe these proposals will go a long way to ensure that the road system can accommodate the growing amount of traffic and, at the same time, persuade people to use public transport by bringing more consistency to journey times.”

The exhibitions will take place at Kingsthorpe Methodist Church in Welford Road, Northampton on:
- Friday, September 18, from 11am to 2pm
- Saturday, September 19 from 11am to 2pm
- Thursday, September 24 from 4pm to 7pm

People who want to comment on the proposals can also contact the county council by email on highways@northamptonshire.gov.uk or by calling 01604 654659.

Hospital tops the closed intensive care beds list

EMERGENCY beds at Northampton Hospital were full for almost the whole of last year when they weren’t closed due to staff shortages.

One or more of the hospital’s eight intensive treatment unit (ITU) beds were closed for nearly 300 days in 2008.

And all of them were occupied for the majority of last year - 325 days in all.

The figures, released as part of a Freedom of Information request to all 171 NHS Trusts in England by the Conservative Party, reveal Northampton General Hospital (NGH) is the worst in the country for closing intensive care beds.

Out of the 141 Trusts that answered, Northampton tops the table with a total of 292 days.

The information shows that eleven patients had to be transferred to other hospitals as no bed was available for them.

Demand for critical care beds at the hospital has increased with more emergency and elective (planned) surgery than in previous years.

The number of complex cases has also increased with the hospital becoming a regional cancer centre.

It has also opened the Northamptonshire Kidney Centre, an inpatient renal unit, which has implications for the number of critical care beds required.

Despite the extra work hospital bosses point to the fact more critically ill patients are surviving than would normally be expected.

Data published by the Intensive Care National Audit & Research Centre showed its mortality ratio to be lower than similar units.

But the Conservative Party has raised concerns that overstretched hospitals will not be able to cope with the expected second wave of swine flu this autumn.

NGH deputy chief executive Helen O’Shea said: “We have opened additional critical care facilities in the last few years, by introducing eight high dependency (HDU) beds and also an additional ITU bed making eight in total.

“The HDU beds are one step down from ITU, but we are able to use all the facilities flexibly depending on demand.

“We have a critical care plan in place, which will allow us to quadruple our intensive care beds in the event of a swine flu ‘surge’.”
Looking to future of old school sites

BY JULIE FISHER

THE opposition leader is calling on the county council to ask people what they would like to see happen to former middle school sites in Northampton.

Under current proposals due to be discussed at a cabinet meeting next Tuesday, the council will keep four up for sale, with the remaining 11 staying until the economy improves.

A previous deal to sell 15 sites to Barratt Homes for residential use was terminated in November last year.

But Cllr Brendan Glynane, Liberal Democrat opposition leader, said he’d like to see the county council ask people what they’d like the areas to be used for, highlighting particular areas in Parklands and Duston where residents had wanted green space on the former school sites.

He said: “They need to go back to these communities and see if there is some benefit for these communities.

“If we are supposed to be a listening council and listening to our citizens these citizens are saying we want more space around where we live.

And he said about the situation as a whole: “We said at the time as a group that this was probably the wrong thing to do (sell the sites as a whole deal).

“We said it would be better to sell them in smaller parts. They did not listen.

“They are borrowing more money to almost the maximum they can and they are failing to sell the sites.”

The former middle school sites are no longer needed for education purposes after Northampton switched from a three-tier education system to a two-tier format.

Cllr Andrew Langley, county council cabinet member for commercial services, said: “We believe that this is the best solution. The impact of the recession is being felt in all sectors of society including the public sector.

“This proposal ensures that we get the most out of these sites not only financially but also for our communities.

“It would not be prudent to sell all the sites at the moment as property prices are at relatively low levels compared to the past few years but if none of the sites were to be sold this could impact heavily on other programmes.”

According to the county council, a number of criteria were used in assessing which schools sites should be put for sale and which ones retained, including looking at the impact on council services and how sites might effect proposals with partner agencies.

The sites which will be put up for sale are:

- Cherry Orchard Middle School
- Ryelands Middle School
- Great Billing Middle School
- Eton Brook Middle School

The sites which are being held are:

- Abington Vale School
- Blackthorn Middle School
- Emmanuel Middle School
- Goldings Middle School
- Millway Middle School
- Kingsthorpe Middle School
- Parklands Middle School
- St Mary’s Middle School
- Green Oaks School
- St James’ Middle School
- St Luke’s Middle School

Hammer robber steals cash

A SIGNIFICANT amount of cash was stolen from a security guard making a delivery to premises in Queens Park Parade on Tuesday.

A police spokesman said: “The robbery happened at around 1.45pm when a man making a delivery of cash to a business was approached and threatened with a hammer. “He handed over the significant amount of cash and the offenders fled the scene, via Balmoral Road and into Edinburgh Road.

“There they got into a blue 4x4 and made off. This vehicle has since been found in Nursery Lane.”

Police are appealing for witnesses or anyone who may have seen this vehicle from around 1.30pm.

The offenders were both white men in their early 20s and one was wearing a fluorescent yellow bobble hat.

Contact police on 03000 111 222 or Crimestoppers anonymously on 0800 555 111.

Centenary celebrations

MORE than 4,000 Northamptonshire Girl Guides have been celebrating 100 years of the movement.

A party was held at the weekend in Abington Park which was the nearest date to the anniversary of the 1909 Crystal Palace Boy Scout Rally where six girls went along to ask for their own organisation.

This action saw the birth of Girl Guiding.

With over 50 activities for everyone to try, there was plenty to do for the afternoon.

Girls could race on three-man skis, learn circus skills, and even try and win a prize on the ‘human fruit machine’.

Guides spoke to people from across the world thanks to the Northamptonshire Girl Guide Amateur Radio Club.

People could listen to music performed by the Grendon Scout and Guide Band, or dance to the rhythm of the Sanba Bandits.

Girls and leaders paraded in original uniforms from the County Archive.

There was also a display on the history of Guiding in Northamptonshire in the museum.

The cake was cut by Margaret Jones, aged 104, from Wellingborough, the oldest former Guide in the county, and Joanna, who is a Rainbow, aged five.

Tricia Neal, county commissioner, said: “We were delighted that so many girls, leaders and parents were able to join us in Abington Park to mark the start of our centenary year.

“We all enjoyed ourselves whether this was taking part in the activities or just listening to the band.

“With over 7,000 members in Northamptonshire, we don’t manage to meet up in the same place at the same time very often, so it was lovely to see so many from across the county.”
It’s best to stay as a market town NOT being born in Northampton, but having worked in the town for over twenty years and having opted to continue living here since my retirement, I do agree with Brian Binley. We have no need to become a city, the charm of the town is in it being a market town (H&P front page September 3).

It would lose that, one cannot have the same feeling about a ‘Market City’. Milton Keynes is only too near and ever expanding. One should look to Mr Binley.

Mrs B Costain

Great Billing

They need to have the equipment.

I AM delighted to read Mr Brian Binley’s remarks concerning our town (H&P August 20).

That is what our men want, up-to-date weapons to fight this war. It saddens me when I see the coffins that bring our lads back. My thoughts go out to the people that have lost their loved ones. I admire Christine Bonner for what she has done. I would like to see, in the church, a reminder of the lads we have lost. I am an ex-soldier who served in war with five other brothers.

My regiment came from Hastings and we have the window and board of those who have lost their lives. We should do the same for the Anglican Regiment.

We need the infrastructure before we can be a city.

I WRITE with regard to your front page article on Thursday, September 3. What is this fascination about city status?

Don’t kid ourselves that city status will bring employment or businesses into the town. In my opinion this is an egotistical trip orchestrated by certain councillors.

Northamptonshire has some of the best farmland and countryside there is and it is a fine county. Northampton has an opportunity to be a lovely traditional market town again which is why people want to live here.

I just don’t understand why our council is in cahoots with the WNDC (West Northants Development Corporation) which wants to spoil everything and build a sprawling mass of houses.

There is not even infrastructure: schools, roads or big business attraction for more homes, to develop Northampton further we will create a shed city where people just commute to and from and don’t work or spend in the town. We don’t want the vibrancy of a city, keep Northampton a market town and keep sacred the greenfields that surround it.

If we can justify that Northampton people do require housing because of a rise in population then continue to develop the Brownfield sites to create affordable housing for our own people. Look back at what is happening around us, we are turning this place into a sprawling estate with no personality.

Ask the people of Northampton what they want - it certainly won’t be to ruin what little green spaces that we have left. This is a huge mistake.

Feeling let down by balloon festival

HAVING just read the letter from Mrs A Salisbury in Herald & Post (September 3) regarding the balloon festival, I felt compelled to write too.

I visited the balloon festival on Friday lunchtime with my husband and three-year-old son.

We used the park and walk system that had been set up around the stadium.

There were no officials and only one sign indicating the direction of the festival.

The walk was along a very bumpy track complete with stinging nettles (great for those with small children) and concluded with a lift kiss fence which was impossible to get a pushchair, pram or wheelchair through.

My husband and I were forced to dismantle the pram and lift it over the bit fence.

If I had been visiting alone I wouldn’t have been able to get through, nor would any one in a wheelchair.

On entering the Aquadrome there were no signs indicating where the balloon festival was taking place.

We eventually found it and were dismayed - a handful of stalls, no organised events, no stages, no funfair, no facilities and most importantly no balloons.

What’s more we couldn’t find a single member of events staff to speak to.

What would have happened if someone needed first aid or if a child was lost? I think the council has always taken a lot of flack for the so called poorly organised festival in the past but this year the festival was appalling.

I’ve always enjoyed the festival at the Racecourse and think the turn out over recent years has been poor due to the weather, not due to popularity.

I spoke to several friends who visited and no one could believe how terrible it was.

So much for Billing Aquadrome saving the day.

I think they ruined it.

Sunday payment to keep rail service moving

COMMUTERS should find Sunday train services are back on track after being cancelled last weekend.

No services ran from Northampton Rail Station on Sunday September 6 because of staff shortages at London Midland.

A statement from the company reads: ‘London Midland is to continue enhanced overtime payments for an extended period while it seeks a long-term solution to Sunday working arrangements.

‘Following the cancellation of the majority of London Midland’s services last Sunday meetings have been held with the trade unions and staff representatives for drivers and conductors to discuss the issues around Sunday working and the reasons for the low numbers of volunteers last weekend.

‘As a result of these discussions, and in order to ensure that London Midland passengers are not inconvenienced by further cancellations and disruptions with the Sunday services, London Midland managers have advised Aslef and the RMT we will continue to offer enhanced overtime payments for drivers and conductors working Sunday shifts. This is again for a time limited period and we will be continuing to seek a longer term solution, as we have already been doing, as well as ensuring that we continue to offer passengers improvements to the performance and reliability of London Midland services across the week.

‘We apologise for the disruption to services on September 6. London Midland fully understands the need to be able offer our passengers a robust and reliable Sunday service in the future.’

Marina must be open to everyone

BY JULIE FISHER
julie.fisher@hpnorthants.co.uk

THE new marina should be for people and tourism.

That’s the message from Northampton North MP Sally Keeble who has written to the Environment Agency, Northampton Borough Council, Northamptonshire County Council and West Northamptonshire Development Corporation about her concerns it could become ‘a preserve of a small minority’ with plans that nearly all moorings will be on a residential basis and access will be restricted.

Mrs Keeble said the marina, a key development on the Nene, should provide a basis for recreational activities for people, tourism, and have spin-offs for other development along the river front.

She added if the marina was devoted for a number of people to keep houseboats, it would become the preserve of a small minority.

Mrs Keeble said: “The Nene is one of the great untapped resources of Northampton.

“Unlike rivers in other big towns, it is not hemmed in by" cones, but keeps a lot of its natural environment, and is absolutely beautiful.

“Any facilities on this should be open to the general public of Northampton to come and enjoy their heritage of this lovely river.

“The marina is right in the heart of town, next to a public park and is just the place to provide a focus for families who want to enjoy a day out in town.

“It would be a tragedy if it was handed over to a few people to moor houseboats.

“The rental levels I have heard mentioned are not a lot more than some people pay in council tax, so the lucky few who get the moorings would be getting a wonderful facility at a low price.”

She added: “In addition the Sea Cadets need written assurances that they will have a lease for the marina, 66 will be available on a permanent basis and 17 will be visitor moorings. Looking at similar marinas research shows us that most people using such a facility do not choose to reside there on a residential basis.

“The permanent moorings are intended to be for boat owners who live locally and want a mooring facility for their boat. Some of these moorings could be residential which would improve the safety and security of the marina. A planning application will be submitted at the end of September which will be the subject of a full public consultation.

“We strongly support the Sea Cadets and have been working with them since the project started. We will continue to support them and meet with them on an ongoing basis.”

Time to speak up on academy

PARENTS are being urged to go to public meetings to have a say on plans to turn Weston Favell School into an academy.

Under current proposals, the school would close and an academy open in the same building in January 2010.

It would be co-educational and offer 1,650 places to children aged 11 to 18, including 300 post-16 students.

The United Learning Trust, a Christian educational charity, would sponsor the academy.

But after a big improvement in GCSE results this year, many would like the school to continue as it is and enable the work which has already been started to make even more progress.

Roger Webb, chair of governors, said: “The school has made very rapid improvements over the last 15 months.

“The school has demonstrated to the local education authority its improvement.”

He added: “We have prepared a leaflet which is going out to all parents. We will conduct polls of parents, staff and students after the meeting next week.

“We are not saying vote this way, or vote that way. We are saying come along and make your own minds up.

“People can attend one of two public meetings taking place on Tuesday, September 15 and Wednesday, September 23 at 7pm at the school.

The show must go on as The Jets launch musical

BY JODIE PARSONS
jodie.parsons@hpnorthants.co.uk

A BAND of brothers have refused to let an inherited kidney disorder stop them in their tracks and are busier than ever as they take their new musical on the road.

The Cotton brothers, Bob, 50, Ray, 48 and Tony, 44 were all born and bred in Northampton but are better known as the successful 1980s new musical on the road. The Jets.

But the trio faced tough times after learning Ray and later Tony had the genetic disorder polycystic kidneys where cysts grow on the kidneys.

Ray said: “Bob donated a kidney to me July last year and everything has been successful. "The idea (for the show) came to me when I came out of hospital and was recuperating. “It has took the good part of a year to get it to where it is now - a lot of changing of the show to get it to run right.”

He added: “I have never felt better since the kidney transplant and full of energy. And Bob is as right as rain - you don’t miss one kidney; We still regularly play football. Unfortunately the down side is Tony has got this disease as well and is looking to have a transplant in the near future. But at the moment he’s fine.”

So they have put all their efforts into their musical Kings of Harmony which sees them performing songs from the 60s and 70s. And early performances of the show have been well received. They are performing it a few times this year but have 30 dates booked next year.

On Saturday, October 10 the musical can be seen at Cripps Hall in Northampton which is the last chance to see it in the town this year.

Ray said: “This is just a new project. We wanted to do something slightly different. “With this we don’t play instruments as much. We have a band backing us and need to concentrate on the harmonies and have choreographed dances. “It’s really hard work and learning this when you are not used to it. We knew where we wanted it to go. “The singing part we know how to do but these type of harmonies are slightly different. “We want it to go from strength to strength.”

They are getting used to this different way of working and learning dance routines but Ray admitted they were no John Travoltas just yet. There is no storyline but the show does have some humour as it progresses from music of the early 60s through to the early 70s.

The family show has music from The Everly Brothers, Frankie Vallie and The Beach Boys. While performing the musical the brothers will continue to perform gigs as The Jets which have been going for about 30 years and still regularly tour the UK and Europe.

The Jets are doing a Christmas show on December 5 in Kislingbury Village Hall and will be supported by Lights Out who are made up of the band’s sons.

To find out more visit www.thejets.co.uk, www.kingsofharmony.co.uk or myspace/kingsofharmony.

• Kings of Harmony will be at Cripps Hall, Billing Road, Northampton on October 10 at 7.30pm. Tickets are £15 or £13 concessions from 01604 258666.

Bob donated a kidney to me July last year and everything has been successful. "The idea (for the show) came to me when I came out of hospital and was recuperating. “

A MAN had to be treated in hospital after he was bitten by a dog.

Police are appealing for witnesses after the 27-year-old was bitten by a dog described as a large black Staffordshire Bull Terrier at about 6pm on Tuesday, September 1 on Tommead Road, Northampton.

He received three puncture wounds to his left arm.

The owner of the dog was described as mixed race, about 5ft 8 tall, of slim build, with very short dark hair, wearing a black hooded-top and black bottoms.

Anyone with information should call Northamptonshire Police on 03000 111 222 or Crimestoppers anonymously on 0800 555 111.

Wave goodbye to waste at tidy-up

BY TOBY LOCK
toby.lock@hpnorthants.co.uk

THREE estates cleaned up their act as part of a three day ‘rubbish amnesty’.

A community clean-up last week took place in the Blackthorn, Goldings, Southfield and Thorplands areas of Northampton to brighten up the areas.

For three days, residents had the opportunity to get rid of household and garden waste - including bulky items that normally incur a cost - free of charge.

The aim was to give Northampton East a fresh start, clearing away any existing litter and rubbish and getting rid of items that run the risk of being fly-tipped in the future.

The clean up began on Wednesday, September 3 in Blackthorn, when residents were able to take their household waste, garden waste and bulky items to the kerbside outside their property.

A leaflet had been delivered to around 1,000 homes in the area explaining more about recycling and the council’s refuse collection service. It also gave the locations, dates and times of the amnesty collections.

Cllr Trini Crake, cabinet member for environment, said: “Most people in Northampton dispose of their rubbish responsibly but there is a small, persistent minority who do not.

“We want to help more people take pride in their communities - a rubbish amnesty is one way of giving residents in Northampton East a fresh start.

“We have always had a great response to our recycling initiatives.”

Budding growers show latest crop

BY TOBY LOCK
toby.lock@hpnorthants.co.uk

As we bid farewell to the summer, the sunflowers continue to grow.
Six-month-old Siobhail Annalese Dawson has been growing her very first sunflower in Kingsthorpe with her godfather Stephen Weatherley.
Already showing green fingers at such an early age, Siobhail's sunflower measured at eight feet two inches tall.
The next entry may not be the tallest, but it certainly is the most sunflowers we've seen.
Jamie Seamark from Oakapple Farm showed off his patch, with the tallest standing at just over seven feet tall.
He said: “Around 150 were supposed to go in, but over-enthusiasm when sowing meant more like 350 came up.”
Two-year-old Freya and nine-month-old Neve Gookley have continued their fine growing form with two huge sunflowers.
The tallest of their attempts has reached nine feet two inches, with an astonishing 11 heads.
Barrie Denny has taken over control from grandson Charlie while he is on holiday. The flowers have been left in capable hands, with the tallest now reaching 12 feet one inch.
The closing date for the competition is Friday, September 11.
If you think your sunflower can win the competition, send your pictures with your full name, address and contact details along with the height of the sunflower to sunflowers@hpnorthants.co.uk. The competition is run in conjunction with Billing Garden Store.
This year’s winner will receive £60 worth of vouchers to spend at the store.
And the runner-up will collect £30 in vouchers, with third place taking home £10.
The winner will be the person that can grow the tallest sunflower once the head of the flower has bloomed.

Speeding and litter priorities for team

BY TOBY LOCK
tlloyd@hpnorthants.co.uk

A NEW supervisor has been appointed to the Thorplands and Lumbertubs Safer Community Team.

Sergeant Dale Iniff, pictured, has moved from the Ecton Brook and Billing team and is looking forward to his new role.

He said: “I am delighted to have been given this opportunity to manage this busy part of town. The team will be responding quickly to any new crime trends and will be paying close attention to known criminals in the area.”

The officer has served for nine years as a response officer, a tutor and in the operational performance service. He was formerly an acting sergeant for the Hunsbury and Wootton Safer Community Team before joining the Ecton Brook and Billing team last year.

His appointment comes as new priorities have been set following a community panel meeting. These are:

- Youths gathering in inappropriate places around Ellfield Court, Fellmead Road and Southfield shops.
- Flytipping and litter around Blackthorn and Southfields.

He said: “We have had some significant results already with our lowest burglary figures for well over two years and auto crime is also very low.

“I am sure this is as a result of some excellent work carried out in the area which has led to some key arrests.”

Statistics show that there have been five burglaries in the area over the past three weeks compared to an average of 15 per week for the same period last year.

Figures for auto crime are 62.7 per cent down on last year with 76 offences reported in the last 20 weeks compared to 204 for the same period in 2008.

Did you see man before his fall?

THE MAN found in Victoria Promenade who later died in hospital has been named.

Patrik Burnos of Johnson Court, Northampton was found in the early hours of Monday, August 31 with severe head injuries.

Hewas taken to Northampton General Hospital where he died at 6pm later the same day.

“Did you see man before his fall?”

A post-mortem has now been carried out and the evidence points towards Mr Burnos, who was originally from Poland, dying from serious head injuries that are consistent with a fall.

Detective Inspector Andy Glenn said: “We are continuing to appeal for witnesses to come forward about this incident as we need to build up a full picture of what Mr Burnos was doing between 11pm and 1am on that night.

When Mr Burnos fell, he was wearing blue jeans, a black T-shirt and silver trainers.

An inquest into the death will be held in due course at the Northampton Coroner’s Court.

Anyone with information about this incident should contact Northamptonshire Police on 03000-111222 or anonymously Crimestoppers on 0800-555111.

Towcester dazzled the dance floor with Latin and ballroom dancing with “strictly” show stopping moves and sizzling steps. Classes are available for children, adults and those who are young at heart.

Bouncing Strawberries launched their way into Towcester Centre for Leisure for children to explore through art using paint, clay and collage to discover the world around them. The bouncing continued throughout the day with Mighty Atom soft play activities, games and face painting and then into the pool for a fantastic flame, wave and float party.

The children at Towcester and Brackley swimming pool dived into action with tasters of the new snorkeling courses available on the Swinflie programme, in partnership with Sports Unlimited and the wet and wild water polo course, at Towcester, with a rip roaring match that made your toes curl.

The Chairman of the South Northants Leisure Trust, Brian Taylor joined in with the fun at Towcester, and was spotted sipping a hot cappuccino and watching from the sidelines, exhausted.

Partnership Manager Nikki Killengray was delighted with the day, she said the atmosphere was fantastic with fun and laughter throughout the day - and lots of blood, sweat and tears - which is what keeping active is all about.

The team had a fantastic day interacting with the whole community and is looking forward to making a difference this Autumn. Tributes paid to ‘generous’ Stacey

BY JULIE FISHER
julie.fisher@hpnorthants.co.uk

THE mother of murdered Stacey Lawrence has paid tribute to her ‘generous’ daughter.

The nine-year-old was found strangled in a Spar lorry on the A605 near Warmington last month. Her mum’s partner, Darren Walker, was found hanging nearby.

Her mum, Roxanne Lawrence, said Stacey was a ‘star pupil’ at her school and spent hours reading in her bedroom and that everything about Stacey was ‘brilliant’.

She said: “Realising she is never going to come home, and we’re never going to see her, she is never going to grow up and have her own children and be the zoo keeper she wanted to be, it’s just so hard to bear.

“She was so generous, at Christmas she didn’t want a present, she wanted to adopt an animal from the zoo.

“She always had her head in a book, she was always reading, always.

“Stacey enjoyed trips to the zoo and family days out. She just enjoyed being part of a proper family like her friends had.”

Emma Hammond, Stacey’s sister, added: “We could be here all day if we described how brilliant she was. She would have done so well in her life.

“She was only alive for nine years but she made a big impact on everyone’s lives.

“She brought a lot of joy to us but it’s ended now. There’s no more joy she can bring to us.”

Discover the rich and exciting heritage of Northampton. This year’s Heritage Open Days, organised by Northampton Borough Council, will be held from Thursday until Sunday, September 13.

The four-day programme celebrates the history and culture of the area by offering free access to buildings which are usually closed to the public or normally charge for admission.

Thirty-one historic and religious buildings will throw open their doors and offer back-stage tours, while volunteers will be giving talks and leading walks around Northampton.

Highlights of Northampton’s programme include the chance to see the Museum and Art Gallery’s entire hoard collection, 90 per cent of which is normally not on display. The Guildhall will open its doors for tours and a Northamptonshire Black History Association exhibition will be taking place with an opportunity to meet the Mayor and Mayoress.

People can also learn about the rich, but often hidden, Jewish heritage of the town on a gentle paced walking tour, take the rare chance to see inside a Sikh Gurdwara or look around any of the stunning churches dating from the twelfth to the twentieth century.

Cllr Jean Hawkins, Northampton Borough Council’s Heritage Champion, said: “Northamptonians are very proud of their heritage and the history of their town, which is bursting with stories of dissent and non-conformism.

“Since Heritage Open Days began in 1994, their popularity has grown tremendously from talks, walks and backstage tours to exhibitions and excursions there really is something for everyone. Plus, the borough council offers one of the biggest events in the region, if not the country.

“Heritage Open Days are an excellent opportunity to discover Northampton’s hidden gems and go behind the scenes at some of the town’s oldest sites for free.”

The incident took place on Saturday, September 5 between 6pm and 6.30pm in Semilong House, Semilong Road, Northampton.

The offenders stole his mobile phone and Ipod.

The only description of the offenders is that they were all wearing dark clothing, possibly tracksuits and hooded tops.

They ran off in the direction of Wellingborough Road or Abington Park Crescent.

It happened sometime between 10am and 3pm and police would like to speak to anyone who may have seen people acting suspiciously in the area during the day.

The man was white, in his late 20s, with dark brown hair, around 5ft 8 and of medium build.

The woman was also white, with shoulder length dark hair and of medium build.

Nothing was taken from the property as it is believed the offenders made off after activating a burglar alarm.

A visit to DisneyLand® Paris with 1 day’s admission to the DisneyLand® Park

ONE of Britain’s leading children’s charities has launched its annual appeal in Northamptonshire.

Operation Christmas Child kicked off their Christmas appeal on Monday by asking individuals and communities to continue their valuable support for vulnerable children despite the economic recession.

The initiative delivers shoeboxes filled with gifts to children living in very difficult conditions in several countries. In 2008, a total of 8,700 shoeboxes full of presents were donated by individuals and groups across the country.

The gift-filled boxes were checked at the charity’s warehouses in Northampton, Brixworth, Towcester and Thrapston before being transported to Kyrgyzstan.

Chris Roberts, regional manager of Operation Christmas Child, said: “Our concern for this Christmas is that people, naturally, are worried by the recession and that they might be undecided about donating a shoebox in 2009.

“Circumstances are worrying for many people in this country at present, but it is an awful lot worse for the vulnerable children and orphans we seek to support.

“Many are abandoned by their parents or have been removed from abusive situations by the authorities, are ill, or are living in poverty or squalid conditions with their families, conditions that have worsened significantly during the global recession.

“We offer support throughout the year, but Christmas is a special time to help a child.

“I am optimistic that the communities in Northamptonshire will rise to the occasion this year, too.”

Anyone wanting to take part in this year’s Operation Christmas Child campaign should visit www.operationchristmaschild.org.uk or contact the helpline on 0870 011 2002.

Rain Man role puts Tony in the shadow

NEIL Morrissey has taken on one of his biggest challenges to date.
The actor is currently appearing in the stage version of Rain Man.
He is playing the role of Raymond Babbitt, originally made famous by Dustin Hoffman who received an Oscar for Best Actor in 1988 for his performance.
Morrissey wants people to see he is a professional actor and someone who is as far removed from Tony in Men Behaving Badly as you can get.
He doesn’t take it as any complement if people think he is ‘just like the character of Tony’.
Speaking about his new role, he said: ‘Definitely it is a challenge to do this as you have to be believable to tell a story.’
The play is not about autism it is about the relationship between a pair of brothers and their relationship with their father.”
Morrissey has put a lot of study time into preparing for the role which began long before the company started rehearsals.
He said: “I studied all about autism as much as I could, such as how it works and how it affects people’s motor skills.
“I was able to take all I learnt along to rehearsals.
“There is a difference doing it on the big screen as opposed to doing it on the stage. You have to speak to the back of the gods and can’t do a quiet hunched performance.”
Having graduated from the Guildhall School of Drama, Morrissey made his name in TV programmes, ranging from Boon, Roll Over Beethoven, Gentleman and Players and My Summer with Des. But the role which Neil is most famous for is Tony in Men Behaving Badly.
Asked what the series means to him now, he said: “I am proud of them all and I loved doing it. “It was a great time of my life and great fun to play. I am glad they are on tape so I can watch them and treasure them.”
But this new, very different role in Rain Man is surprising others as well Morrissey himself. He added: “In a sense you do surprise yourself but I would not have taken the part if I could not do it. People can come and judge for themselves.”
Rain Man is at Milton Keynes Theatre from September 14-19.

ARE YOU WORRIED THAT YOUR PARENTS OR OLDER RELATIVES MAY BE UNABLE TO COPE IN THEIR CURRENT HOME? AND DO YOU FIND THE THOUGHT OF SEEING THEM HAVING TO GO INTO A NURSING HOME OR RESIDENTIAL CARE HARD TO ACCEPT?

Townsend Court, McCarthy & Stone’s Assisted Living development of one and two-bedroom retirement apartments in Rushden could be your answer.

KEEP YOUR CAPITAL INTACT
Assisted Living bridges the gap between a conventional retirement property and more formal care alternatives. Importantly, purchasers retain home ownership, thus preserving their capital. Assisted Living may also postpone, perhaps forever, the need to consider a nursing home.

TAILOR MADE FACILITIES
Staff are on site 24 hours a day, to help ensure residents can continue to lead a fulfilling and independent life. As part of the service charge, one hour of domestic assistance is available each week and further assistance can be tailored to individual residents’ needs. There’s also a waitress service restaurant, open every day for lunch and meals can even be taken to residents’ apartments in the event of illness.

Comic caper’s whale tale

Spymonkey present their unreliable but hilarious version of Moby Dick

Royal & Derngate is working with Spymonkey in this co-production which will take to the Royal stage from Friday, September 18 to Saturday, September 26 before touring the UK. Four whalers find themselves trapped in the belly of a literary monster. As they ponder the irony of their fate they recount a story of Moby Dick, with all their fantastic flourishes. The novel’s examination of good, evil, fate and obsession is lost on them. And then, mysteriously, found anew.

Will Ahab’s thirst for revenge be unhinged by the well-meaning but clueless attentions of his crew? And now that he has found true love, is Ishmael still fated to be the sole survivor of the Pequod?

Stuffed with invention and a delightful lack of respect for theatrical convention, Spymonkey’s Moby Dick brings together a remarkable team of creators, combining physical comedy with Music Hall, burlesque, dance, big show-stopping songs, puppetry, illusion and a raft of special effects.

Spymonkey’s award-winning brand of comedy is a 21st century mix of Fawlty Towers, Marx Brothers and Mel Brooks, with brilliant characters, visual humour, slapstick comedy and out-and-out laughter.

Over the last three years, Spymonkey has been the smash hit of Brighton Festival, Just For Laughs Montreal, Melbourne Comedy Festival and two sell-out London seasons.

The company was last seen in Northampton with their hilarious show Cooped Up in Autumn 2007.

Tickets to see Moby Dick at Royal & Derngate are priced from £11 to £27 from 01604 624811 or online at www.royalandderngate.co.uk

Appealing for space

BY JODIE PARSONS
jodie.parsons@hpnorthants.co.uk

WITH the Northampton Gilbert and Sullivan Group busy rehearsing for their 56th annual production they are appealing for help in keeping their costs down.

From January 25-30 the group is to present the ever popular The Pirates of Penzance at Royal & Derngate - the sixth time it has performed it in its history. But staging a new show each year is becoming more expensive with rehearsal costs, theatre hire charges, costume hire, orchestral costs and more.

And the budget for Pirates is around £30,000 which is a lot for an amateur society to find.

In an attempt to cut costs without compromising production standards the group is designing, building and painting its own sets - a rocky seashore for Act 1 and a ruined chapel in Act 2.

Members are able to design and make the sets but the group need a suitable space to build, paint and store the sets prior to the production.

They are looking to find a suitable building in the Northampton area where they could do this.

Anyone who can help or for more information contact Mike Ivatt on 01327 842746 or John Brough on 01604 862646.

Tickets to see the group are now on sale from Royal & Derngate’s box office on 01604 624811.

BIG band hits will pack a punch as Chris Dean’s Syd Lawrence Orchestra rolls into town.

Having just been voted the ‘Best Big Band in the Land’ for the twelfth consecutive year, The Syd Lawrence Orchestra’s popularity continues to go from strength to strength.

Leader Chris Dean presents this dazzling new show, The Best of the Big Bands, offering an evening filled with the most distinctive music combined with audience banter, producing a fusion of music and humour.

The show features the music of Glenn Miller, Count Basie, Tommy Dorsey, Artie Shaw, Benny Goodman, Billy May, Frank Sinatra and Ella Fitzgerald.

They perform at Royal & Derngate on Saturday, October 24 at 7.30pm. For tickets call 01604 624811.

Strictly tango will raise temperature

BY JODIE PARSONS
jodie.parsons@hpnorthants.co.uk

A SIZZLING show of dance is set to get pulses racing as couples get ready to tango. With Strictly Come Dancing fever about to take hold again, dance fans have the chance to see Argentina’s hottest tango show on stage in Northampton.

Tango Fire, direct from Buenos Aires, comes to Royal & Derngate on Friday, September 18.

Ten sensational dancers take to the floor, accompanied by Quatrontango, a quartet of brilliant musicians.

Tango Fire is an irresistible journey through the history of this most seductive of dance forms.

There’s nostalgia from the dance’s early days while the group’s modern choreography is edged with the sharpness and sophistication of contemporary Argentina.

As one of the most popular dance forms world-wide, this show combines the rawness and sophistication, the sexy yet sensual side of tango, in a true dance spectacular.

This is tango at its fiery best. Tango Fire explodes onto the Derngate stage on Friday 18 September at 7.30pm. Tickets are on sale now, priced from £25 to £18, available from the Box Office on 01604 624811 or online at www.royalandderngate.co.uk.

West End cast lend their voices to new CD

A COMPOSER from Irchester is preparing for the CD launch of his latest musical which features a West End cast.

Bluebird is a production set in World War II and is the latest in a number of works written by Gareth Peter.

It tells the heart-breaking story of Roberta Jones as she comes to terms with her husband Pete going off to war.

Roberta, a nurse, soon meets the charismatic US serviceman Ben and a friendship grows, much to the disapproval of best friend, Jane.

Ramin Karimloo is the current Phantom of the Opera in London and plays the role of Ben.

He is joined by two stars of the BBC’s hit shows to End West End leading ladies, I’d Do Anything finalist Sarah Lark and Ali Finley from How Do You Solve A Problem Like Maria?

Ramin said: “It was great to help out a new and up coming British composer. He has put his heart and soul into this project. I think he’s done a great job and I was honoured to be asked to take part in it and also have a song written for me.

"It was also a lot of fun to go back to singing with a rockier sound."

Gareth said: “This is the biggest and most complex project I have tackled and I feel touched to have worked with such an amazing cast.

“They fully embraced the piece and I am immensely proud of this album. It proves that there are still new British musicals being created.”

For more information on Bluebird, visit the website www.garethpeterdicks.co.uk

The Gruffalo will jump from the page and come alive on stage for a monster of a live show.
Following a sell-out run in the West End at Christmas, the hit musical adaptation of the book by Julia Donaldson and Axel Scheffler is coming to Royal & Derngate on Sunday, September 20.
Since its premiere in 2006, the production has delighted thousands of youngsters worldwide, touring across England, Scotland and Wales and as far away as Poland, Canada and Broadway.
Audiences will join Mouse on an adventurous journey in search of hazelnuts through the deep dark wood and meet a wheeler-dealer Fox, an eccentric old Owl and a maraca-shaking, party-mad Snake. Mouse can scare hungry animals away with tall stories of the terrifying Gruffalo but what happens when he comes face to face with the very creature he imagined?
The 2009 tour coincides with the 10th birthday of the book, which has sold more than three million copies worldwide.
It is also hitting the small screen in an animated film scheduled for a TV premiere at Christmas.
The Gruffalo is an ideal introduction to theatre for young children and their families, with larger than life characters as well as plenty of songs and laughs.
There are two chances to see the show on September 20 at 1.30pm and 4.30pm. It is £8 for children and £10 for adults. Family tickets are also available.
To book call 01604 624811 or visit www.royalandderngate.co.uk

The large garden is mainly laid to lawn with patio areas.

Upstairs there is a modern re-fitted family bathroom with a three-piece white suite with heated towel rail and white tiling.

Peters: ‘I’d take promotion over personal glory’

CRICKET

STEPHEN Peters will not be satisfied with passing the 1,000 run mark for the season and is looking to add to that in Northants’ final three games.

The left handed opener’s 73 against Middlesex set Northants up for their six wicket win in last week’s County Championship match, as well as taking him to 1,006 first class runs.

It is the second time he has reached that total at the County Ground and now Peters is looking to go on and beat his personal best of 1,177 set when he was with Worcestershire in 2003.

“I’m pleased, things have gone pretty well this year,” said Peters, adding: “I had a setback early when I broke my thumb and missed a couple of games but since then I’ve played some decent stuff.

“It’s always nice to get over the line and not only that, but there’s still three games to go. If I can get as many as possible it will be good.”

Having been out for a duck in the first innings, Peters soon set about making amends as Northants chased down 220 to win with a day to spare.

He began in an unusually attacking manner, doubling his hundred from 32 balls with an incredible 12 fours on a wicket that still offered plenty early on for the Middlesex new ball bowlers.

Peters said: “It flattened out a bit as the game went on. The first couple of days it did start a little bit green but it was a decent result wicket.

“Or lost a bit of time on the first day with the rain and it had a little bit all game, but we didn’t really want to chase many more than 200.

“Chasing 220 was reasonably tough, but anything under 250 we were backing ourselves to chase down and it was nice to see Rob White get the hundred. I’m really pleased with my performance so far this year, but more than that we are playing some really good cricket in this four day competition and another win has kept us right in the mix for going up.”

After Peters was dismissed, White weighed in with 85 not out to see Northants over the line in the final scheduled over of Friday’s play.

The victory moved them up to second in Division Two and sees them holding a slender one point advantage over Gloucestershire with a game in hand.

Northants began their latest match against Surrey at the Oval yesterday, searching for a win that would cement their position in second place and keep them on course for promotion.

“The win keeps us right in the mix,” said Peters, adding: “Surrey is going to be another tough game but we’ve got three left, everyone is enjoying their cricket and enjoying the fact we’re at the top, so we look forward to it.”

Northants had included former Leicestershire batsman Paul Harrison in their squad for the trip down to the Oval after some impressive performances for the second XI.

The 25-year-old has featured for the seconds on several occasions this year, making 64 and 82 in his last outing against Middlesex at Ubridge three weeks ago.

NCL REVIEW

FINEDON Dolben maintained the upper hand in the Premier Division title race after their match with second place Northampton Saints finished all square.

Chasing 192 to win, Dolben fell one run short and with the scores being level a winning draw was awarded to the visitors.

Chris Park’s 59 not out helped Saints to 191-7 at the close, while county batsman Mark Nelson contributed 57 to the total.

Clint Tomlinson led the Fine- don reply on 67, but they were unable to knock off the runs needed. As all ten wickets had not fallen, it was declared a winning draw in Saints’ favour.

The result leaves Saints still with all to do as they trail Dolben by 32 points with two games left in the season.

Rushden Town are still on course to finish third despite suf- fering a 149 run defeat at home to Old Northamptonians.

ON’s Alex Walker fell one run short of his century, while Richard Kaufman (51) and David Lucas (47) both made runs.

Graeme White finished with 4-44 but in Rushden’s reply it was six wickets from John Woll- stedt’s hand (6-25) that saw them dismissed for 142.

Brixworth kept alive their hopes of staying in the Premier Division by claiming the larger share of the points in a winning draw against Northamptonshire Cricket Academy.

Tom Worthington led the way for the visitors after they were made to bat first, scoring 67.

Brixworth skipper Alex Lacey and Paul Blakemore both hit 59 as they closed on 239-9.

Dare Marlow then claimed 5-31 in the Academy’s reply but 62 from Jack Chopping helped ensure the defending champions reached 182-9 at the close.

Wollaston sneaked a one wicket win in a low scoring contest at home to Rushhton.

Chris Perry’s 6-50 helped the hosts bowl Rushhton out for 175, with Marc Jackson top scoring on 65.

Mandeep Singh then took 5-34 but Wollaston were able to hold their nerve and seal the win.

Elsewhere in the division, Burton Latimer beat Great Houghton Town by six wickets, while Stony Stratford’s winning draw at Desborough Town kept the hosts bottom.

This Saturday’s Fixtures

Brixworth v Burton Latimer, Desborough Town v Rushden Town, Northampton Saints v Northamptonshire Cricket Academy, Peterborough Town v Old Northamptonians, Rushton v Finedon Dolben, Stony Stratford v Wollaston.

League leaders cut it Fine in crunch top of the table clash

Essex

This week’s top Essex fixture sees Boreham Wood Square Mile looking to cement their position at the top, as they travel to Winchmore Hill this Saturday.

Wood Square Mile currently sit at the top of the table with a six point lead over their nearest rivals, while Winchmore Hill are currently in second place.

The visitors have won their last four matches in a row, with their last game seeing them secure a 78 run victory over Watford in the semi-finals of the Essex Challenge Cup.

Winchmore Hill, on the other hand, have been in impressive form as well, having won their last three matches.

The game is expected to be a tight affair, with both sides possessing strong batting line-ups.

It’s set to be a thrilling encounter as Wood Square Mile look to extend their lead at the top of the table, while Winchmore Hill will be hoping to close the gap and put pressure on the leaders.

This weekend’s Essex derby promises to be a heated contest, with both sides looking to grab a victory to boost their chances of finishing on top of the pile at the end of the season.
JIM Mallinder is looking for his Northampton side to put the mistakes that nearly proved costly last week ahead of the big Wembley date with Saracens.

Saints head to the famous stadium on Saturday as Sarries’ usual home of Vicarage Road is being used for Watford’s Championship football match against Barnsley. Northampton snatched a 20-17 victory at the death against Worcester Warriors on Sunday whenCentre Reihana dived over in the final minutes of the match.

They trailed by ten points at half time and despite having the majority of the possession were unable to make it count as handling errors and penalties in the visitors’ end of the field proved costly.

But with seven minutes remaining, Worcester had fly-half Willy Walker sin-binned for kicking the ball close to the line. That allowed Saints to use their numerical advantage and have a go at the tryline, which didn’t help.

The director of rugby is hopeful that both Mallinder and Bonorino will be back for this weekend, while Brian Mujati could also be available.

The injury to Argentine Bonorino has left Northampton with three of their tight head props on the sidelines with Mallinder not concerned by the shortage in the front row.

He said: “It’s not ideal because we’ve lost three tight heads there with Mujati and Euan Murray being injured. Sometimes it happens like that where you get injuries all in one position, but we’ll work on him this week and hopefully get him right for the weekend.”

BUDDY Northampton Casuals stormed into Sunday’s national final of the Rugby League Conference with a 52-22 victory over Devon Sharks.

Losing is not an option come Sunday at 1.30pm, “We are battered and bruised but in good spirits whilst we'll take it and move on,” said a relieved Mallinder (pictured above) after the match.

He added: “We just say let’s keep playing, we had a lot of possession and I think we were playing most of the rugby. It was a shame that they got the interception try which didn’t help and we were making a few mistakes, which didn’t help. It’s always good to start off with a win, particularly when you play at home. It was a nervous performance by us, there’s lots of little areas we can work on but it’s a win. That’s why you can never really multi too much in pre-season.

Everything we did at Cardiff worked well and came off, today it didn’t. “That’s what happens and we have to make sure that doesn’t happen again. It’s first game nerves and hopefully we can build on it and move on.

Northampton lost two key players to injury during the game, with Stephen Myler limping off with a strained ankle in the second half and Santiago Bonorino being forced off with a bad back. Debutant Shane Geraghty was forced to switch from centre to fly half but made the transition seamlessly and was awarded man of the match for his showing.

Mallinder was pleased with the new signing, saying: “He made quite an impression and that’s one of the reasons why we wanted him here.

You never want anybody to go off injured but it’s good to have somebody like Geraghty who can fill in at ten. He was composed and he kicked his points very well.”

 LOCAL RUGBY ROUND-UP

MIDLANDS ONE EAST MARKET BOSWORTH 11 OLD NORTHAMPTONIANS 31

PROMOTED ONs got to the perfect start in the newly-formed Midlands One East after coming from behind at the break to beat Market Bosworth.

A penalty from Alex Rose put the visitors into an early lead. However, Market Bosworth replied with a kick of their own before taking the lead with an unconverted try. Another penalty from Rose sent ONs into half time trailing 8-5, but it was after the restart that they began to assert their authority on the game.

James Hayden’s converted try got the ball rolling for the away side and although Bosworth replied with a penalty, a further kick and drop goal from Rose saw them edge ahead.

Two tries in the final ten minutes then capped off the comeback. Firstly, Charlie Barker went over for a try that was converted before Dan Napier finished things off with his second of the game.

ATHLETICS

YOUNGSTERS from Rugby and Northampton Athletics Club will be appearing on television this Sunday when Channel 4 screens highlights from last weekend’s National Young Athletes League finals.

Athletes from the club under 13, 15 and 17 age groups journeyed to Birmingham’s Alexander Stadium after finishing second in this year’s Midlands Premier Division.

There were five individual successes for Rugby and Northampton across the male and female age groups, with the most coming in the boys under-17s.

It caps off a fine season for the club which saw them finish first in four out of five Midlands league matches. The other teams they saw beaten by Birchfield by a narrow margin.

Youth team manager Janet Wright said: “The young athletes overcoming and infectious team spirit across the two training sites has developed considerably and this continues to bring success as well as fun.”

RUGBY UNION

RUGBY LEAGUE

A RAMPANT Northampton Casuals stormed into Sunday’s final day of the Rugby League Conference with a 52-22 victory over Devon Sharks.

Bears had won by 100 over Northampton at the Twickenham Stoop, the Casuals produced another dominant performance to book their place in Derby.

Standing in the way of Northampton and their first national title are Jarrow Vikings, who recently overcame Scottish champions Edinburgh Eagles in their semi.

“Loss is not an option come Sunday at 1.30pm,” warned head coach Joe Smith.

“Jarrow Vikings are an outstanding outfit from Tyneside and have averagely scored over 50 points a game, so this is going to be a real test for our ‘Yellow Brick Wall’.

“We are battered and bruised but in good spirits whilst we’ll take it and move on,” said a relieved Mallinder (pictured above) after the match.

He added: “We just say let’s keep playing, we had a lot of possession and I think we were playing most of the rugby. It was a shame that they got the interception try which didn’t help and we were making a few mistakes, which didn’t help. It’s always good to start off with a win, particularly when you play at home. It was a nervous performance by us, there’s lots of little areas we can work on but it’s a win. That’s why you can never really multi too much in pre-season.

Everything we did at Cardiff worked well and came off, today it didn’t. “That’s what happens and we have to make sure that doesn’t happen again. It’s first game nerves and hopefully we can build on it and move on.

Northampton lost two key players to injury during the game, with Peterlee Pumas in the divisional Grand Final, followed by a 36-10 victory over Edinburgh.

Meanwhile it has been a magnificent turnaround for the Casuals, who won just two games last season and now find themselves in championship glory.

They signalled their intentions early on against Devon, with Chris Webber going over from close range after just four minutes with a converted try.

The Casuals capitalised on Northampton kicking the ball out on the full, to even things up with a converted score of their own on 12 minutes.

Seb Ward and Michael Hulme both touched down to restore the Casuals advantage, with flying full back Hulme adding his second soon after.

Further scores from Dan Brotherton and Paul Beckett put them into a 32-6 lead at the interval, although Sharks hark back on 44 minutes with their second converted try.

Blair Hartley, Kie Feaster and Matthew Derry then ran in three unanswered scores, and although Devon got two further tries of their own late on, hooker Derry finished things off with his second of the game.

SOUTH OF ENGLAND CYCLING

TOWCESTER cyclist Stewart Wilson is heading out on his latest extreme challenge as he bids to complete a full circuit of Ireland next week.

The Race Around Ireland is a 1,350 ultra marathon around the Emerald Isle and Wilson will be riding solo, starting next Tuesday at 8pm.

Supported by a team of six, European Champion Wilson will be lining up against several former World Champions at the start in County Meath.

He is hoping to average between 500 and 600 miles a day on the hilly terrain around the coast of Ireland, with a target finish time of early evening on Saturday, September 20.

Wilson’s training has seen him cycling every night from his home out to the Cotswolds and back, usually from 10pm to 4am. Anyone wishing to follow his progress can do so by visiting the event website at www.racearoundireland.com.
IAN Sampson admits he will be doing everything he can to ensure he is handed the Northampton Town managers job on a permanent basis.

Sampson and coach Jim Barron were placed in temporary charge of the Cobblers following Stuart Gray’s sacking on Monday morning.

The pair were last in charge for a four game spell following John Gorman’s resignation in 2006, overseeing a win, a draw and two defeats.

Sampson, who has been at Sixfields as a player and coach for the last 15 years, is now targeting a step up to the managerial hotseat full time.

“This is my job interview now and I’m going to give it one hundred per cent,” he told the club’s official website.

“The buck stops with me for the next few games at least and hopefully we will pick up some results.

“I think I got a decent response from the players when I was in caretaker charge last time and hopefully I will get the same response from them this time round.

“I think I’ve done a five year apprenticeship in coaching, two years with the youth team and three with the first-team and I think I’m ready now.

“I think it probably would have been the wrong decision to give me the job last time but I think I’m ready now and I’m desperate for the chance.”

“We’ve got a run of four games coming up against some good sides who hopefully we will be competing with to get promotion so it will be a good test for me and a good test for the players.”

The former Cobblers centre half, nicknamed ‘Sammo’, faces arguably one of the toughest games he could have this weekend as Northampton travel to big spending Notts County.

The Football League’s oldest club have received a huge injection of cash from their new owners over the summer which has seen them attract big names such as Sol Campbell and Sven Goran-Eriksson to Meadow Lane.

But Sampson is excited by the challenge of Saturday’s game against County, who have not lost any of their first three games at home and sit sixth in the early standings.

He said: “You are judged on every game you play and playing against the so-called millionaires of League Two in Notts County should be a spur to the lads. It certainly a spur for me and it’s a great game for me to go and pit my wits in.

“We have made a terrible start to the season, we need to find some level of consistency and at the moment we aren’t doing that.

“I want Northampton to do really well, that’s why I’m here and I’m a fan as well as an employee. I’ve been here for 15 years now and I take it to heart as much as anyone when we’re not winning games.

“I think we have got a decent squad and we should certainly be competing for the top seven.”

Sampson would certainly be a popular choice as manager amongst the Sixfields faithful. He originally joined Northampton on loan from Sunderland in 1994 before signing permanently, going on to make 450 appearances in all competitions before retiring in 2004.

He won many admirers with his non-nonsense style of defending and was a key part of the 1997 and 2000 promotion winning sides.

The 41-year-old took on a coaching job with the Cobblers when his playing days ended, assisting Gray when he took over as manager.

Following former Southampton boss Gray’s sacking, chairman David Cardoza said: “No-one is ruled in and no one is ruled out of becoming the next manager of Northampton Town.

“I am sure this club will be an attractive proposition to a lot of potential managers and we will see what the next few days and weeks bring.

“We will not put any timescales on this. It is important we take our time to get the right man.”

Northampton have also found out their opponents for the next round of the Johnstone’s Paint Trophy. They will host Bournemouth on Tuesday, October 6.

Both clubs have agreed to reduce prices for the match, with tickets costing £10 for adults and £5 for concessions. Season ticket holders get a further £2 discount on adult tickets.
